The Daily Courant.

Friday, February 26. 1720.

Lisbon, January 25.

THE King set out on the 22d for Salvatierra, to stay there for some Days, and the next Day the Queen followed thither, with the Prince of Brazil, and the Infantas Dona Maria, and Dona Franciscæ. On the 19th, Sig. Carlo Antonio Mezzabarba, Titular Patriarch of Alexandria, and Apostolick Visitor of China, arrived here on board a Genoese Ship, with 22 other Missionaries Secular or Regular. Sig. Bichi, the Pope's Nuncio at this Court, went to receive him at his Landing, and conducted him to his Palace, where he is to remain till he has an Opportunity of embarking for the East Indies. The Missionaries who accompany him, have been defrayed during three Days by the Nuncio, after which the Treasurer of the Apostolick Chamber began to provide for their Maintenance.

Venice, Feb. 17. 'On the 7th Instant was represented in St. Mark's Place, the publick Shew which is usual at this Time of the Year. The said Place 'was surrounded with Scaffolds, which together with 'the Windows on all Sides, were crowded with Spectators of all Ranks and Condition, masked and unmasked. The Diversions consisted of a Baiting of about 60 Bulls and 2 Bears, a Representation of the Atchievements of Hercules, performed by the same Company that were employed in Saxony in the Time of the pompous Rejoycings made there on Occasion of the Electoral Prince's Marriage; then the Heads of two Oxen were cut off; and last of all, a Man was seen in the Air sliding on a Rope, extended from the Steeple of St. Mark to the Church di San Geminiano: Trumpets and Kettle-drums were continually playing as long as the Diversion lasted, and in the Evening there were Entertainments and Balls in most of the Houses, and the Streets were full of Masks; all which publick Recreations were favoured by very fine Weather. On the 12th, being Sunday, the Shew was renewed at the Expence of the Government, as they usually do that Day to please the Populace. The Doge and the Senate assisted at it, as also the Pope's Nuncio. The People went from thence in great Numbers to the several Churches of this City, where the Host was exposed on the Altars; the Patriarch of this Place gave the Benediction to the Congregation assembled at the Church dei Tolentini. The Passengers who were come hither to partake of the Diversions of the Carnival, are preparing to return home. Among them are the Duke di Torre Maggiore and the Prince della Torella, both Neapolitans, a Prince of Hohenzollern, a German, and it is said the Duke of Holstein-Gottorp is likewise here incognito. The Princess of Piombino is already set out on her Return to Rome. The Pleasures of the Carnival having ended on Shrove-Tuesday the 13th Instant, in Quietness and without any unfortunate Accident, Devotion has now its Course. On the 10th, all the Preachers of this Place being assembled at the House where the Office of the Inquisition is kept, the Pope's Nuncio prepared them for their Function by a short Speech, in which he recommended to them the Care of the Souls during the Holy Time of Lent, pursuant to their Duty, and the Intentions of his Holiness. Accordingly on the 14th being Ash-Wednesday, they began to preach in their respective Churches, to which People resort in great Numbers.

Paris, March 2. 'On the 29th past it happened that counterfeit Bills were set up at the Office of the Bank, naming a certain Price at which the India Company would buy and sell Actions, which so influenced the Trade in Quinquampoix-Street, that Stocks immediately rose, but when the Cheat came to be found out, they soon fell again. The Company, to prevent further Mistakes of that nature, have since begun to put their Seal to the Bills they set out at that Office.
